

Date Feb 2' 24

Shithin

We continue to have good conversations about the children. You observe and notice alot about them! You are also engaged and respectful with them.

I noticed your confidentiality this week. We were talking about a child but we stopped and waited when another parent came into the room.

You helped the children on a campus cook today and played with them at ELC. The children are drawn to you.

Noeleane